JAKARTA – Emirates airline is offering free accommodation, along with multi-risk insurance that includes covid-19 protection, for travelers traveling to Dubai, United Arab Emirates, from 15 March to 30 June 2021.

Passengers booked on return Economy Class flights to Dubai from March 8 to 28, 2021 for travel dates March 15 to June 30, 2021, are eligible for a free two-night stay at the JW Marriot Marquis.

Meanwhile, business class and first class passengers who book tickets during the same period, can enjoy a free three-night stay from the day of arrival at the JW Marriott Marquis Dubai which has complete facilities. The hotel's location is close to Dubai's famous attractions, such as Dubai Mall, Burj Khalifa and Dubai Opera.

Special prices for return tickets from Jakarta to Dubai start from IDR 7,999,999 for Economy Class and IDR 27,999,999 for Business Class. "Passengers also don't need to bother taking care of baggage because Emirates has added a free baggage allowance of 10 kg from Dubai," Emirates said in its message, as quoted by Antara, Wednesday (10/3).

Since safely resuming tourism activities in July 2020, Dubai has remained one of the world's most popular holiday destinations, especially during the winter. Now, Dubai is open to international business and leisure travelers.

Emirates booking policies offer customers flexibility and confidence to plan their travel. Customers who purchased tickets for travel on or before 31 March 2021 can enjoy rebooking terms and options if they need to change their travel plans.

Safest Airline

For your information, at the end of 2020, Emirates was named the safest airline in the world in response to the Covid-19 pandemic according to the Safe Travel Barometer. Emirates, which has implemented safety standards across the aviation industry since restarting operations in May, topped the rankings with a 'Safe Travel Score' of 4.4 out of 5.0, among more than 230 airlines evaluated worldwide.

"This score is based on an independent audit of 26 health and safety parameters that evaluate safety protocols, traveler comfort and airline service excellence," Emirates wrote in its official statement.

The Safe Travel Barometer itself is a solution for monitoring and measuring the programs and activities of the main players in the travel, tourism and hospitality industry in the post-Covid world. The assessment mechanism takes into account the safety measures and hygiene standards, across all travel touchpoints that Emirates has consistently implemented.

At every step of the journey, Emirates has always prioritized the care, health and safety of its customers, employees and the communities it serves. Biosafety measures implemented by Emirates include distribution of free cleaning supplies, protective barriers at check-in desks and immigration counters, personal protective equipment, new safety protocols for cabin crew and airport employees who have direct contact with customers and enhanced aircraft cleaning procedures including routine cleaning and disinfecting of aircraft toilets every 45 minutes during flights.

Emirates claims to be the first airline in the industry to offer free global coverage for covid-19 to its customers which helps them travel with confidence.
